What makes the Centuro Global Expansion Conference unique?

Thanks to technology and the internet, companies can now go global overnight! However, to truly succeed on the global stage, it takes a whole village of support.

The Centuro Global Expansion Conference is the first and only ecosystem to bring together traditionally siloed industries and professionals to collectively come together and collaborate more effectively.

This is where the world's key contributors to successful global expansion, local and global experts, investors and government bodies meet with the aspirants, accomplished entrepreneurs and business figures from fast growing scale-ups through to established enterprise companies.

Before the Centuro Global Expansion Conference, there was no event catering to this audience. The Centuro GEC is yet another example of how Centuro Global seeks to reinvent and transform the way companies undertake international business.

Meet the world-leading companies joining us at the Global Expansion Conference

Centuro Global INT-X Awards 2023

At the Centuro GEC, we look to acknowledge and celebrate companies and individuals making a positive global impact, as well as the unsung experts who enable global expansion.

Centuro Global recognises that it takes a village to successfully enable companies to successfully expand into new markets. We therefore want to bring together and widely showcase this extraordinary village, whilst providing the changemakers who are redefining international expansion with the credit they deserve.

We're excited to announce that these awards will be returning in 2023. The INT-X Awards will be presented at an exclusive gala dinner, which will take place on the 3rd of May 2023.

More information on the INT-X Awards and how to enter can be found HERE
